

Double Words

Which two words make a word or phrase found in Then the Rules Changed?

_____ 1. BARLEY

A. BARN

_____ 2. DOUBLE

B. BASKET

_____ 3. HAND

C. BUN

_____ 4. HEAD

D. COAT

_____ 5. HOUSE

E. COFFEE

_____ 6. IMMIGRATION

F. CUTTER

_____ 7. REED

G. GRAIN

_____ 8. SHEEPSKIN

H. HAMPER

_____ 9. SOD

I. SCARF

_____ 10. STEAMER

J. SHOES

_____ 11. TRAVEL

K. STATION

_____ 12. WOOD

L. TRUNK

Double Words

Isaac pulled off his woven reed shoes and wiggled his toes in the dust.

From Then the Rules Changed, 2022, Carolyn Zeisset, p 2

“Just help Daniel once to hold the front and side pieces while I nail the steamer trunk together,” said Father.

From Then the Rules Changed, 2022, Carolyn Zeisset, p 12

Lena ... was pretty in her new head scarf. ... The other two graduates disgusted Isaac. ... They lived in big houses, so big his whole house-barn would fit four or five times just in the house.

From Then the Rules Changed, 2022, Carolyn Zeisset, pp 6-7

Lena washed the pewter cups in a pan. Isaac packed them in a round handbasket.

From Then the Rules Changed, 2022, Carolyn Zeisset, p 20

Daniel was responsible for the travel hamper. ... Isaac picked up two sheepskin coats. “Bring yours,” he said to his little sister. She skipped away. “Hot. No coat.”

From Then the Rules Changed, 2022, Carolyn Zeisset, p 21

At each meal stop, Lena took the kettle to find hot water for barley coffee.

From Then the Rules Changed, 2022, Carolyn Zeisset, p 26

“Break the Zwieback so Tante Maria can toast them,” said Lena....Isaac pulled apart the tops and bottoms of the soft double-deck buns.

From Then the Rules Changed, 2022, Carolyn Zeisset, p 14

Isaac could see through the few high windows in the immigration station that it was dark outside.

From Then the Rules Changed, 2022, Carolyn Zeisset, p 61

Herr Lepp hitched the oxen to the flat wooden box. “An uppity farmer wanted a new sod-buster plow and just threw away this good sod cutter,” he said.

From Then the Rules Changed, 2022, Carolyn Zeisset, p 94

Isaac knew each tree by its size, the shape of its leaves, and the texture of its bark, but Cornelius knew the trees better. He could identify each by the pattern of the wood grain.

From Then the Rules Changed, 2022, Carolyn Zeisset, p 19